NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Tweedy have received word that their son, John A. Tweedy, Jr., is now in France. He is well, although he tells of the extremely warm climate there. Mr. and Mrs. Tweedy also have a letter from their son, Pfc. Lewis C. Tweedy, saying that he is now out of the hospital and rapidly gaining strength. He is somewhere in the Southwest Pacific. He was wounded in June.

Ronald Webb, S-2-c, is now attending an electrician's school at Bainbridge, Md. He is the son of Mrs. O. J. Webb, Spout Spring.

Pvt. Rebecca Harvey, W. A. A. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harvey, of Kenova, W. Va., spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burnette. One of the oldest and largest, business enterprises in Central Virginia, the department store, service stations, cafe and produce and creamery, feed and seed business have meant much to the growth of the town of Appomattox as a trading center. An average of $2,500 worth of farm produce is handled weekly by this concern, providing the principal background for trade here.

After more than a quarter century of business leadership here, Mr. Burge has been declining health for seven months and unable to direct his extensive enterprise. Under virtual doctor's orders, to retire from business, he made the announcement Tuesday that his department store would begin closing out sale today. His service station No. Two was sold recently, and his other businesses are for sale or lease.

A great throng of shoppers jammed every nook and corner of the department store this morning and the sales staff was doubled to wait on the eager buyers. A crowd had gathered in front of the store a full hour before the opening.

At this time, it might well be said that when H. M. Burge leaves the field of business in Appomattox, the town and county will have suffered a severe loss to its commercial life. The prayers and best wishes of every citizen of the county will follow him in his quest for a return to normal health.
